Fertilizer Manufacturer Accident-Free for More Than Three Years

CF Industries recertified in VPP STAR status

INDIANAPOLIS (Oct. 30, 2018) – Indiana Department of Labor announced today that CF Industries, Inc., of Mount Vernon, Indiana, achieved STAR re-certification in the Indiana Voluntary Protection Program. The facility is part of a selection of workplaces who have exceeded occupational safety and health expectations and demonstrated commitment to putting the well-being of Hoosier workers first.

The STAR status is part of the Voluntary Protection Program, which provides recognition to Hoosier employers that operate exemplary safety and health management systems. Certification in VPP is an achievement of that identifies employers who serve as model worksite for Hoosier workplace safety and health.

“They’ve achieved something not a lot of companies can brag about,” said Indiana Department of Labor Commissioner Rick J. Ruble. “This small, dedicated team has kept each other safe and accident-free. Thank you for your commitment to safety and health.”

CF Industries, Inc., is a global leader in nitrogen fertilizer and phosphate fertilizer. The company engages in manufacturing and distribution across the Midwest region. A small team, the facility houses 11 employees.

The Mount Vernon location has achieved an outstanding workplace safety and health culture and kept its workers safe. The site hasn’t had an OSHA-recordable incident in at least the past three years.
